

Chairman Powell and Republican Commissioners:

If you vote on June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules rather than vote to allow more media consolidation. Rules should be written to enhance the public interest rather than favor a hyper-consolidation of private interests.